Your degrees are evidence of your desire and ability to succeed and will aid you in turning opportunities into realities. Again, congratulations!

As a proud UOG alumna, I pray that you will embrace the commitment to enlighten, to discover, and to serve and remain a proud Triton throughout the years to come.

Thank you very much for choosing the University of Guam. I wish each and every one of you a very Merry Christmas and a happy, healthy, and prosperous New Year.

Ms. Antoinette Sanford

About Commencement

Academic Dress and Procession

The history of academic dress dates to the Middle Ages when many scholars were also clerics and wore costume of the monastic orders. In 1321, the University of Cambridge adopted specific styles and color combinations. American colleges and universities desired to adopt a standard code for academic dress for colleges and universities in the United States. The standards continue to be followed by the American Council of Education.

The costumes worn today are all traditional and their colors, trimmings and patterns interpret the degree, the field of learning, and the institution that conferred the degree. The bachelor's gown has long pointed sleeves and is designed to be worn closed; the master's gown has an oblong sleeves open at the wrist. The rear part of its oblong shape is square cut and the front part has an arc cut away. The doctor's gown has bell-shaped sleeves, is faced with velvet and has three bars across the sleeves. The color of the velvet is distinctive of the degree.

The hood tells the story. The type of degree bachelor's, master's, doctor's, is indicated by the width of the velvet edging and the length of the hood, the doctor's hood being the longest and of a fuller shape. The color of the velvet edging denotes the field of learning and the lining denotes the school that conferred the degree.

The color of the tassel, worn on the left side of the mortarboard, indicates the field of study and is gold for those with a doctor's degree. The colors you will see today in the hoods and gown of our faculty represent the various fields of learning: white, arts, letters, and humanities; drab, business administration; light blue, education; apricot, nursing; dark blue, philosophy; and golden yellow, science.

The academic procession is led by the grand marshal, who is the President of the Faculty Senate. A traditional order to procession is followed: First come the candidates for degrees according to the order in which the degrees are to be conferred; next, members of the faculty led by the faculty marshal, the honorary degree recipient and the other members of the platform party followed by the president of the university. The order is reversed for the recessional.

You will note that some of today's graduates are wearing a gold stole. This stole indicates that the wearer is graduating with academic honors.

The Mace

Historically, the mace was a heavy, spiked club used during the Middle Ages to break armor in battle. Today, the mace is an ornamental staff borne as a symbol of authority before a public official or legislative body. The mace of the University of Guam is made of ifil wood into which are carved ifil leaves. Ifil wood was chosen because of its performance, strength and value, all of which reflect the major characteristics of the University of Guam. The mace, designed by Forrest G. Rogers, was carved and donated to the University of Guam by the Department of Corrections.

Commencement Address

Mr. Richard Lui

Journalist and News Anchor for MSNBC and NBC

*Richard Lui
Journalist and News Anchor for MSNBC and NBC News*

Richard Lui has spent more than 25 years in business and communications. Currently, he is a journalist and news anchor for MSNBC and NBC News. Before that, he became the first Asian American male to anchor a daily, national cable news show in the U.S. while he was at CNN Worldwide. His reporting has focused on politics, covering every national election since 2004. Lui contributes as a columnist for USA Today, Politico, Huffington Post, The Seattle Times and others.

Lui's community work spans 30 years and six continents. He is a Policy Fellow at the University of California at Riverside, UN Spokesperson for its HeForShe campaign, and U.S. State Department Traveling Speaker. Lui is also ambassador for NGOs like Plan International (working for gender equality), anti-human trafficking NGO Not For Sale, and APIASF, a group helping disadvantaged AAPI students in higher education. Lui himself was raised on food stamps, working for five years after high school instead of going to college.

Lui has received civil rights awards from national organizations including the National Education Association, Advancing Justice, AAJA, WWAAC, and OCA. Most of his writing, speaking, and social media activity involve issues related to his charitable and humanitarian work. The last several years, Lui spoke at over 200 events, and is ranked in the top 1% of social media users globally.

Before journalism, Lui spent 15 years with Fortune 500 and tech companies. At Citibank, he co-founded and patented a payments backbone system, and he was a management consultant at Mercer for an IBM JV. Before his Ross MBA, he held executive roles in environmental manufacturing and data recovery. He currently sits on both for-profit and non-for-profit boards. He is also working with a Palo Alto artificial intelligence company on how to leverage its technology in the humanitarian and not-for-profit space.

He is an alumnus of City College of San Francisco, UC Berkeley, and the Ross School of Business at the University of Michigan.

A first generation Chinese and Polynesian American, Lui has a twist in his background. Because his grandfather, an unauthorized immigrant, filed false "Paper Son" documents, Lui's real last name is Wong.

The National Anthem

Lyrics by Francis Scott Key

Oh! Say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O're the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming.
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
Oh!, Say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O're the land and of the free and the home of the brave?

The Guam Hymn

Ramon Manalisay Sablan, M.D. (1934)
Translated to Chamorro by Lagrimas Untalan

Fanoghe Chamorro put it tano'-ta
Kanta I matuna-na gi todú I lugat.
Para I honra, para I gloriha
Abiba I isla, sin parat.
Para I honra, para I gloriha
Abiba I isla, sin parat.

U todú I tiempo I pas para hita
Yan ginen I langet na bendesion.
Kontra I piligru, na'fansafu ham
Yu'os protehi I isla Guâhân.
Kontra I piligru, na'fansafu ham
Yu'os protehi I isla Guâhân.

University Alma Mater

Music by R. Mannoni

On the shore of the Western Pacific
Stands our Alma Mater true.
We'll long retain the memories
Of the days we spent with you.

In the warmth of the island magic,
We will return some day.
Join in and sing a song of praise.

Hail, oh hail.
Hail, oh hail.
Our University.
