Assists in introducing concepts of career-planning at new student orientations. Assists in inviting employers to speak to students and graduates. Assists in the coordination and compilation of surveys from graduates and employers. Assists in the delivery and coordination of career development workshops every regular semester and summer term. Assists in the coordination and maintenance of occupational resources through its web-based platform. Assists in the coordination and collaboration with the University's Human Resources Office on student and graduates' employment opportunities. Assists in the coordination and collaboration with the Office of Alumni Affairs to provide career services including individual advising/counseling to alumni and alumni tracking. Assists in the collaboration with the Office of Institutional Research and Assessment to conduct studies and surveys to capture what our degrees mean to graduates, employers, and the community. Develop and assist in planning and conducting training modules for career advising. Other duties as assigned.

EDUCATION:

Applicants claiming degree or credit hours are required to provide an original or certified copy of the documents (e.g., transcripts, high school diploma, or GED certification) accompany the application.

WORK ELIGIBILITY:

Submission of completed job applications authorizes the University of Guam to seek and obtain information regarding the applicant's suitability for employment. All factors which are job related may be investigated (i.e., previous employment, educational credentials, and criminal records). All information obtained may be used to determine the applicant's eligibility for employment in accordance with equal employment opportunity guidelines. In addition, the applicant releases previous employers and job related sources from legal liability for the information provided.

Section 25103, Chapter 25, Title 10 of the Guam Code Annotated requires college or university employees to undergo a physical examination, to include a test for tuberculosis (skin or x-ray), prior to employment and at least annually thereafter. A report of such examination must be conducted by a licensed physician within a state or territory of the United States and must be submitted upon request.

Federal law requires presentation of eligibility to work in the United States within seventy-two (72) hours of reporting for employment. Specifically, 8 USC 1324A requires the employer to verify the identity and eligibility to work in the United States of all newly hired employees. The University of Guam is required to comply with this law on a non-discriminatory basis. If you are hired to fill a position within the University of Guam, you will be required to present valid documents to comply with the law.

POLICE AND COURT CLEARANCE:

Pursuant to Public Law No. 28-24 and Executive Order 2005-34, applicants selected for a position are required to provide original police and court (Superior Court of Guam) clearances of no more than three (3) months old prior to commencement of employment. Off-island applicants must obtain clearances from their place of residence. Applicants are responsible for fees associated with obtaining the clearances.

HOW TO APPLY:

All applicants must submit an online job application through the UOG's online employment portal system at <http://uog.peopleadmin.com> and upload supporting documents with their application. For further information, please call 735-2350.
