NATURE OF WORK:

The Guam PTAC assists small and large businesses in obtaining and performing federal and local government contracts. Guam PTAC Procurement Counselors help clients identify opportunities and understand the government contracting process in order to take advantage of government sales dollars. This position is responsible for providing consultations with clients as well as delivering educational seminars on a variety of contracting topics.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

The Procurement Counselor reports to the Program Manager, Guam Procurement Technical Assistant Center (Guam PTAC). The Procurement Counselor will provide counseling including federal and local government procurement assistance in the areas of registrations, certifications, bid matching, marketing, procurement histories, bid/quote preparation and other assistance through one on one counseling. Conduct assessments of client needs, provide services and make referral if necessary. Conduct educational offerings in a variety of areas of procurement particularly focused on small businesses including small disadvantaged business concerns (SDB), women owned small businesses (WOSB), HUBZone small businesses (HUBZone), and service disabled veteran owned small businesses (SDVOSB). Identify and work closely with potential stakeholders, financial partners, and grant/contract opportunities. Promote Guam PTAC program to economic developers and other organizations affiliated with small businesses through memberships, speaking engagements or collaboration on training events and other projects to promote the Guam PTAC program. Document, analyze, and communicate program impact, including entering data into Outreach Systems to record conferences, counseling sessions, and contract awards. Travel off-island to attend bi-annual conference as needed.

EDUCATION:

Applicants claiming degree or credit hours are required to provide an original or certified copy of the documents (e.g., transcripts, high school diploma, or GED certification) accompany the application.

WORK ELIGIBILITY:

Submission of completed job applications authorizes the University of Guam to seek and obtain information regarding the applicant’s suitability for employment. All factors which are job related may be investigated (i.e., previous employment, educational credentials, and criminal records). All information obtained may be used to determine the applicant's eligibility for employment in accordance with equal employment opportunity guidelines. In addition, the applicant releases previous employers and job related sources from legal liability for the information provided.

Section 25103, Chapter 25, Title 10 of the Guam Code Annotated requires college or university employees to undergo a physical examination, to include a test for tuberculosis (skin or x-ray), prior to employment and at least annually thereafter. A report of such examination must be conducted by a licensed physician within a state or territory of the United States and must be submitted upon request.

Federal law requires presentation of eligibility to work in the United States within seventy-two (72) hours of reporting for employment. Specifically, 8 USC 1324A requires the employer to verify the identity and eligibility to work in the United States of all newly hired employees. The University of Guam is required to comply with this law on a non-discriminatory basis. If you are hired to fill a position within the University of Guam, you will be required to present valid documents to comply with the law.

POLICE AND COURT CLEARANCE:

Pursuant to Public Law No. 28-24 and Executive Order 2005-34, applicants selected for a position are required to provide original police and court (Superior Court of Guam) clearances of no more than three (3) months old prior to commencement of employment. Off-island applicants must obtain clearances from their place of residence. Applicants are responsible for fees associated with obtaining the clearances.

HOW TO APPLY:

All applicants must submit an online job application through the UOG's online employment portal system at <http://uog.peopleadmin.com> and upload supporting documents with their application. For further information, please call 735-2350.
