

Juan admires Tun Pedro's haggan (turtle) and wants to learn how to make his own sand sculptures. Draw sand sculptures of all the sea creatures you know along the beach and color this beautiful scene at the Chepchop Unai.

Juan enjoys making sand sculptures at the Chepchop Unai (seashore) while his Tātan Bihu (grandfather) goes fishing and his Nānan Biha (grandmother) weaves baskets. Write the CHamoru and English names of his creations and color this beautiful scene at the Chepchop Unai.

You have been invited to participate in a sand sculpture competition at the Chepchop Unai (seashore). What will you create? Use the notepad sheet to write or sketch out your plan for winning the competition. Good luck!

Juan teaches his prima (cousin) Isa how to build sand sculptures at the chepchop unai (seashore). What will they create?
Draw and color sand sculptures along the beach.
